

/ The graduate of the Faculty of Humanities of NSU was elected to the International Federation of Library Associations

Stanislav Ermolenko had graduated from the Faculty of Humanities NSU in 2009 and had finished postgraduate studies in the Department of ancient literature and literary source study in 2012. Since 2011 Stanislav Markovich is the Head of the Department of valuable and rare books of the Novosibirsk State Regional Scientific Library. Stanislav Ermolenko is the Head of Section of historical and cultural heritage and local history of the Novosibirsk Library Society, the Head of the Novosibirsk regional center of book monuments. In July 2015 he was elected as the member of the Section of Rare Books and Special Collections of the International Federation of Library Associations (IFLA).